The Governor of Mississippi, who was recently re-elected without opposition, stands charged, as does the Euperintendent of the penitentiary, with very grave mismanagement, to put it in the mildest form, and they owe it to themselves to meet the report of the Senate Committee with an instant answer fully and completely satisfactory. On the fifth page we publish the facts in regard to these charges, and we make no doubt they will be read, especially by Mississippians, with sorrow, strongly tinetured with hope that they rest upon mis-

Tax list of entries and purses to be run for at the coming races over the Memphis Jockey Club course affords the very best guarantees for a successful week, should the weather serve favorably. Col. Montgomery has been indefatigable in securing the best stables and making his own time, and he deserves the highest praise-for the determination and tenacity with which he defended the interests of Memphis, and compelled the race people to arrange their season according to his dates. The course is in the most inviting condition, and the stabling ample to accommodate twice the number of horses to attend. All the stands and buildings are in the best possible condition, and the outlook is altogether the most assuring the race men have ever had here.

It is pleasant to know that the speech of Senator Howell E. Jackson, in support of the Blair bill, is regarded by the ablest members of that body as one of the strongest arguments ever delivered in the Senate Chamber. It was his first set speech before that body, but it more than satisfied the most critical judges, and made for him a place among the first lawyers and best debaters in Congress, He rose | 000. with the occasion and was never so be called by the original numbers much himself as when he was being only, questioned and cross-questioned by those in opposition is the debate. THE visit to this section of Mr. John Inman and his party of capitalists from New York is one of the significant signs of the times. The West is in most places overdone. The East, with its plethoric capital, is therefore compelled to look elsewhere for paying investments. Nowhere can they be so easily found as in the South, whose mineral resources, so much richer than either of the other great sections of the country, has not been the State Legislatures. The commit-more than scratched, and whose tee seemed exceedingly interested, and agricultural possibilities have not yet gave the ladies a very respectful hearby 70 per cent been revealed. No man in the country knows this better than Suffrage History from its inception up Mr. Inman, whose love for the land to the present time, and told them she he helped to defend as a gallant Confederate soldier has been evidenced by his own heavy investments and his encouragement of other capitalists to cultivate fields lying fallow, that only wait the magic touch of capital to reveal a wealth more ample year by year than the mines of Nevada or Colorado.

A question has been raised as to the fee the State of Mississippi should pay Judge Watson for his services in defending the milway supervision suit that this heavy payment will not have before the Supreme Court at Wash-ington, and it has been referred to debt, as the revenues of the governseveral lawyers for settlement, the lowest sum fixed upon by any of them being $10,000. Judge Hill and Chris-man, and Messus, George, Walthall, Catchings, Percy and T. W. White, fix the fee at $10,000; Mr. C. B. Mitchell of Pontotoc, at $12,000 to $15,000; Mr. M. A. Improved Condition of the Indians-Garland and Rogers-Another Bond Call.

SPECIAL TO THE APPRAIN Washington, February 20,-Despite the severe winter, there has been comparatively little suffering among the Indians, and Commissioner Atkins has had but few requests for food and clothing from destitute Indians. Congress has authorized the use of a portion of the emergency fund to relieve the Northern Cheyenne Indians in Montana. With this exception the ordinary provisions made for the Indians have been ample. The favorable condition of the Indians is attributed to the increased attention which they have given to agriculture instead of relying wholly upon the govern-ment, and hunting and fishing.

J. HARRIS ROCKES has addressed a letter to Gen. Johnson, in which he forbids Mr. Garland giving away his stork, upon the ground that it would be a violation of the original agreement through which the Attorney-General secored his stock.

STATE SUPREME COURT.

DECISIONS RENDERED IN THREE MURDER CASES.

One Sentence Confirmed and Two Reversed and Remanded for New Trirls.

ISPECIAL TO THE APPEAL ! Nashville, Tenn., February 20.— The Supreme Court to-day affirmed the death sentence of Allen Herbert, colored, convicted of the murder of Henry Everett, colored, and fixed April 2d as the date of hanging. Herbert took the sentence like a stoic. Herbert murdered Everett at the quarry, in the corner of Pine and McNary streets, March 20, 1885. Everett, a fellow workman, a few min-utes previous to the trayedy, asked Herbert for the use of a sharp drill which Herbert was using. Herbert refused to give it to him, and Everett, walking up to Herbert, caught hold of the drill. Herbert told him if he did not release his grip he would cut his heart out. Everett declined to com-ply, and Herbert drew a knife and stabled Everett in the region of the heart, the blade entering between the sixth and seventh ribs, inflicting a wound several inches in length. Ev-erett begged Herbert not to cut him again, but Herbert again planged the blade into his body, first in the left temple and then in the back. Everett fell dead, and Herbert immediately fled. After an absence of several days from the city, Herbert was captured at his father's home, near Triune, in Williamson county. He was brought here, tried and convicted of murder in the first degree, on May 12th, and was subsequently sentenced to be hanged June 18, 1886. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court. THE CARTER MUNDER CASE. The case of Obic Sawyers, Ed Petty and Tom Cartwright, charged with the murder of James Carter, was argued in the Supreme Court dur-ing the past week by Col. N. N. Cox and Atha Thom-as of Franklin, Judge John V. Wright and M. R. Priest of this city for the defendants and Judge Lea for the State. The case was passed upon to-day, Judge Turny delivering the opinion of the court, reversing and remanding the cause for a new trial. Judge Turny gave his reasons for the "Where the State in a case of circumstantial evidence shows an indictment against the defendant and deceased was a material witness in said indictment as a motive for the killing, it is an error in the court below not to allaw proof of another indictment against another party wherein the deceased was also a material witness to show that to kill the deceased was also show that to kill the deceased was also had by another party; second, on the morning of the killing in the after-noon one of the defendants rode up to a place where another was. BIRMINGHAM, ALA. The Room in the Pig-Iron Trade -Compress Company.

ISPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.

BERMINGHAM, ALA., February 20.
In spite of the unfavorable freight rates now in effect on pig iron to the North and West, the condition of the iron and fuel trades are far from being in this district what the coke troubles have made it in the East. Pig iron is still stiff, and the furnaces are doing good work. More iron ore was mined the past week than ever before. The coking plant of the district has all it can do to supply the present demand, so new arrangements will be made for two furnaces now building, and fo which bids have already been asked from coke men. The Pratt Coke Iron Company alone expects to build 300 more ovens this spring. Stock has been placed for a Curry cotton compress company here, and an organiza-tion will be effected in a few days.
